There are four Kaitiaki Moni, Tāne, Mārama, Waitaki and Te Hau. They also have a  called Manawa. The Kaitiaki Moni go on  adventures with Manawa. One day, while out on an adventure, the Kaitiaki Moni read in the  that the  of Aotearoa wanted to become better money savers.

The Kaitiaki set off around Aotearoa with a  of teaching  about saving. On their first adventure, the Kaitiaki recognised that making smart goals helps whānau to be better savers.

Things cost money, so having goals on what you want to do with the money you have helps make good choices.

Setting and achieving goals is
